THE

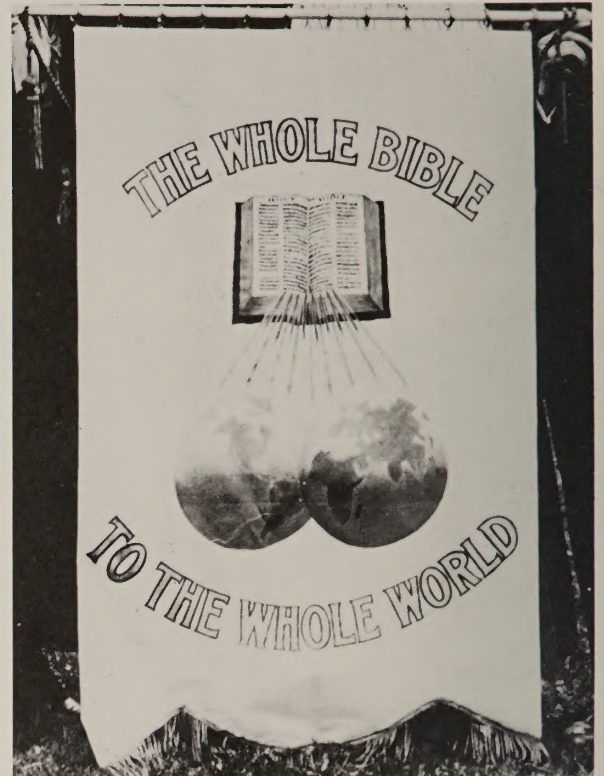

NYACK

SCENE

When twelve students met in the back of an old theater on New York City's 23rd Street, they were preparing to fulfill their calling to a certain service.

As over six hundred students gather twenty miles away and ninety-three years later in Nyack, our prayer is that our preparation will enable us to meet our calling to the world in which we would serve.

Every September,
 when a crowd of new people ascends to the hillside from almost every state and several other countries,
 the miracle occurs again.
 People find friends
 and places of service.
 In other words,
 the process of building
 a community begins.
 Now, wouldn't it be ridiculous for a community to consist entirely of millers, or of shoemakers,
 or of poets exclusively?
 This is what we learn—
 among other things.
 From the choosing of majors, to adjusting to each other's speech patterns, perhaps the most important lesson to be learned is that of the existence of a unity
 among brothers and sisters under our heavenly Father despite our human diversities.

There is a certain point a few hundred yards from the most bustling part of the campus.
From here, one is best able to appreciate the location of Nyack College.
Looking to the east,
it is impossible to miss the beauty of the Hudson River.
To the north is Hooke Mountain;
at it's feet
the village of Nyack is nestled.
On a clear day,
looking down the river,
Manhattan seems as close as it is.
From this same point,
it is also very good
to look at what is near.
Here, one is surrounded by trees, rocks, wildlife, and in their seasons, flowers and berries.
Truly, "the heavens declare the glory of God and the earth showeth forth his handywork".

Completed in 1969, the Campus Center is the most utilitarian building on the Nyack Scene. Some people even think it is beautiful. It is the center of such important activities as eating, mail collecting, book buying, student organizationizing, yearbook making, and even class attending.

Of Shuman Hall, the question is asked, "Can the administration and the library occupy the same building and it (the building) still survive?" This elegant structure handles it well. The upper floor lends itself to the sophistication of the leadership it houses, while the lower floor is conducive to the discipline of study. But, the basement is really stacked with books.

At one time called simply "the Institute building", Simpson Hall creaks and groans with age. Everyone is tempted to try and find a way into the top two floors, which have been condemned. The first two floors contain classrooms, faculty offices, and the rat room—a part of the psych-geology lab.

Moseley Hall, at the north end of the campus, is a building where the men can take refuge. Motions have been voiced in favor of changing the name of this building to "the cave".

The gymnasium, the newest building on campus, is the scene of such diversified events as registration, homecoming banquet, sports, gym nights and graduation. Somehow, everyone manages to fit into this arena for such occasions.

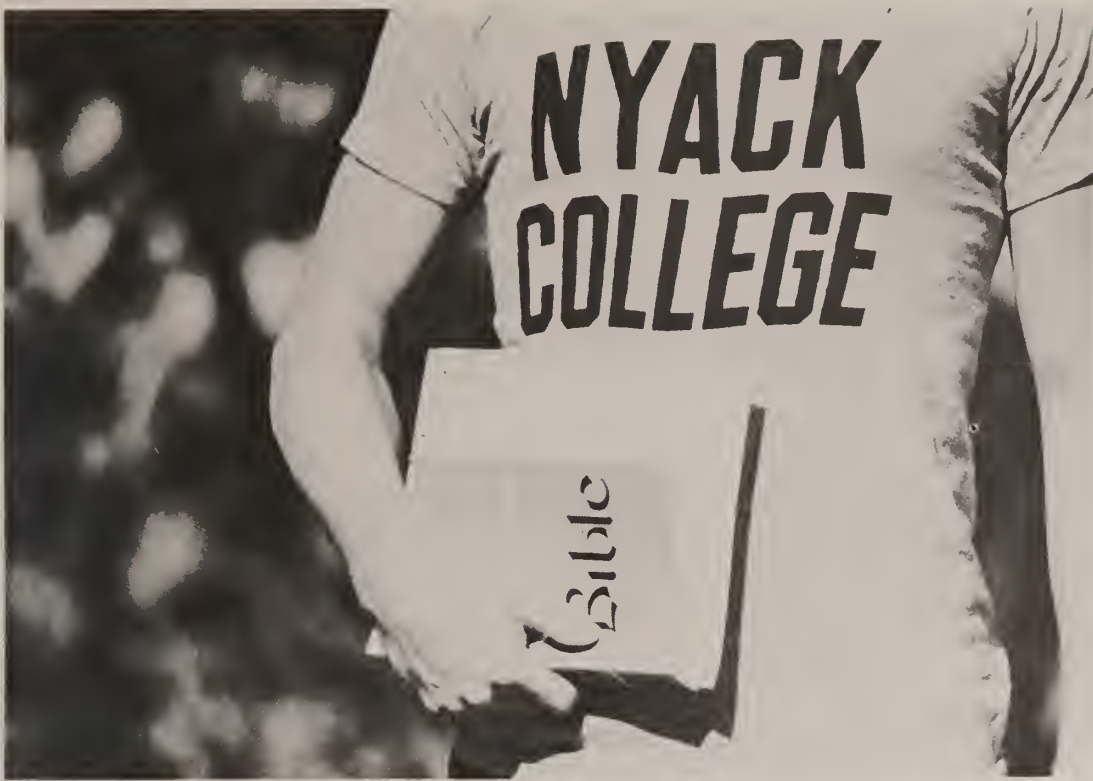

The curfew hour finds Christie Hall filled with the women of Nyack. These women do not find this place as much of a haven as the Ladies' Reading Room in the library.

The hush of Pardington auditorium is broken at ten o'clock each weekday morning when the student body and faculty gather for chapel. This building has the distinction of having survived trial by fire, resulting in a new coat of beautiful blue paint.

... twenty miles and ninety-three years of experience ...

MAKING THE SCENE

ROUTE 9W
The Nyacks
KEEP RIGHT

LAST EXIT
BEFORE BRIDGE

During the summer months, two floors of Moseley Hall are kept open as a reminder of what has been and what is to come.

This is the time for working on projects that cannot be done while school is in session and there are crowds of people on campus. Between summer school and various conferences, the maintenance department works furiously: painting, repairing, and hopefully getting ahead in their work so as to be able to keep up with the everyday duties of the regular school session. Sometimes summer projects are an astonishment to all, especially when roads and rock gardens spring up practically overnight.

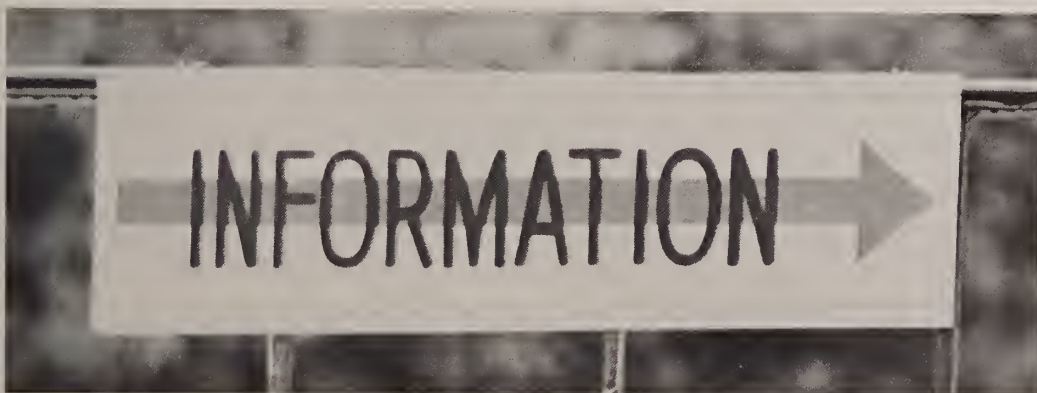

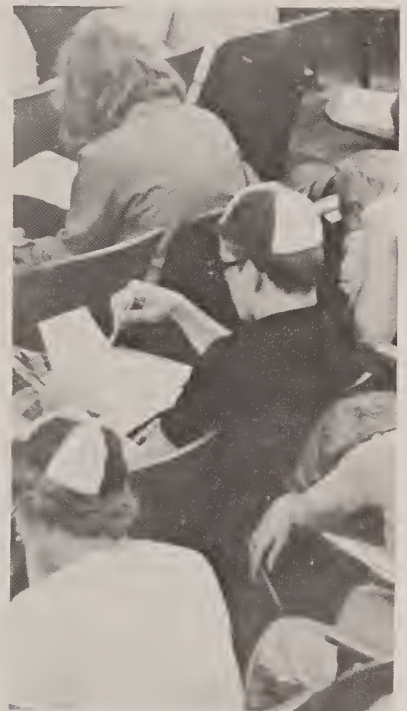

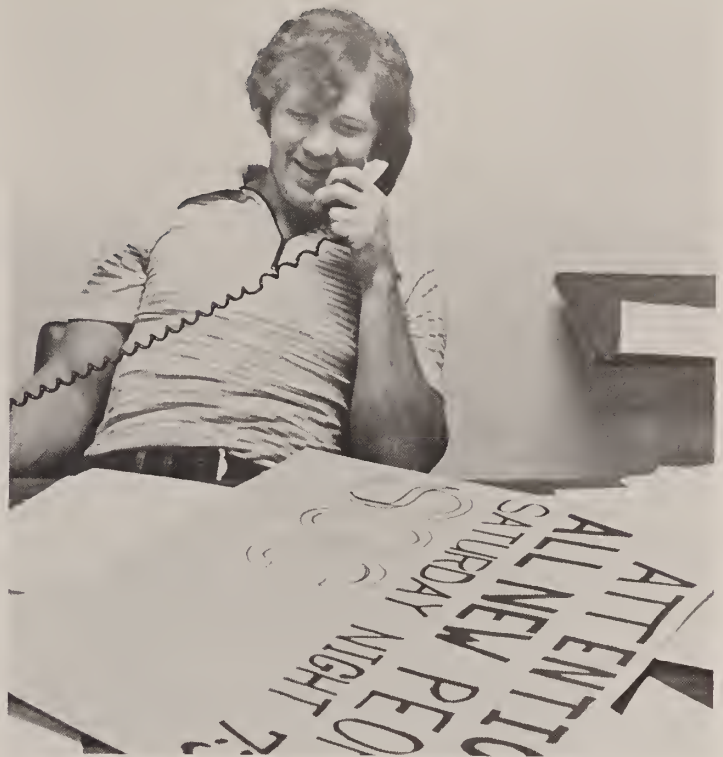

As the days get shorter and the evenings become pleasantly cool again, activity on the Nyack Scene increases. The soccer team returns to prepare for the fall season. Those who will be student teaching during the first semester arrive early for orientation.

Then come the crowds and moving in officially begins. It is a time of much work; it is also a time of much excitement. For freshmen, there are new people to meet, new things and new places to see, and tests to take. For returning students, there are friendships to renew and summer accomplishments to discuss. For everyone, there are boxes to unpack.

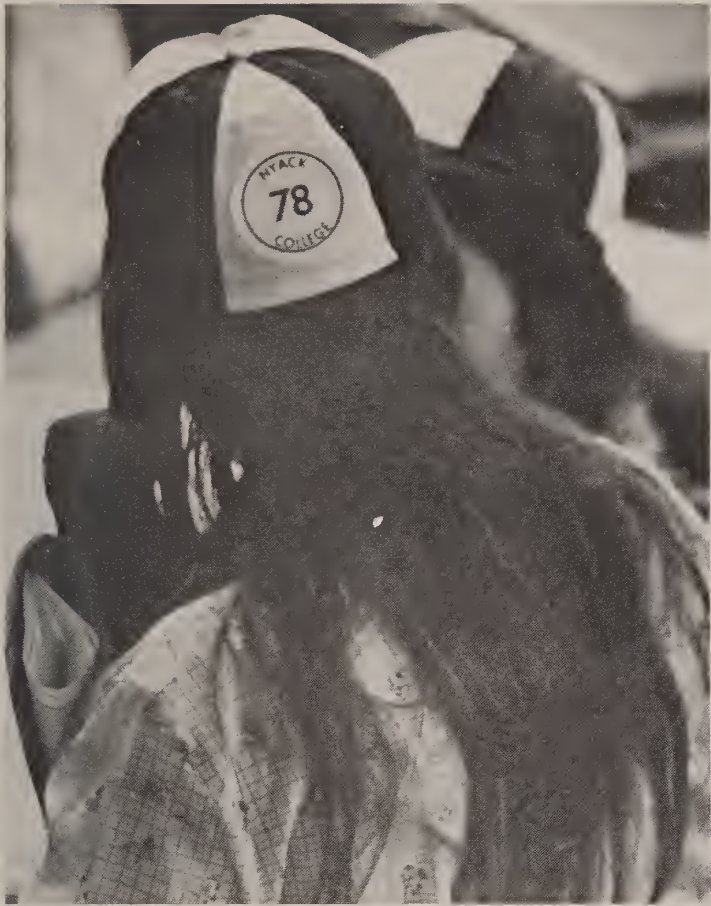

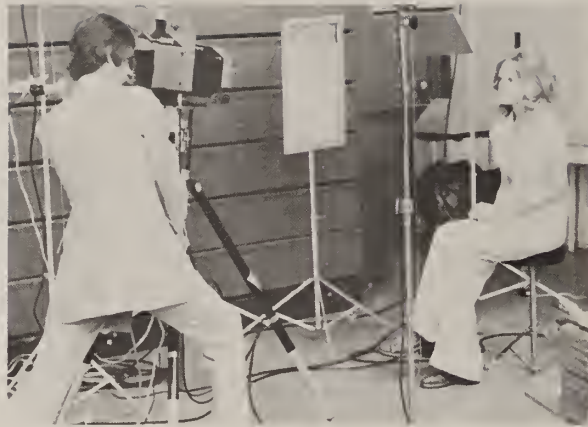

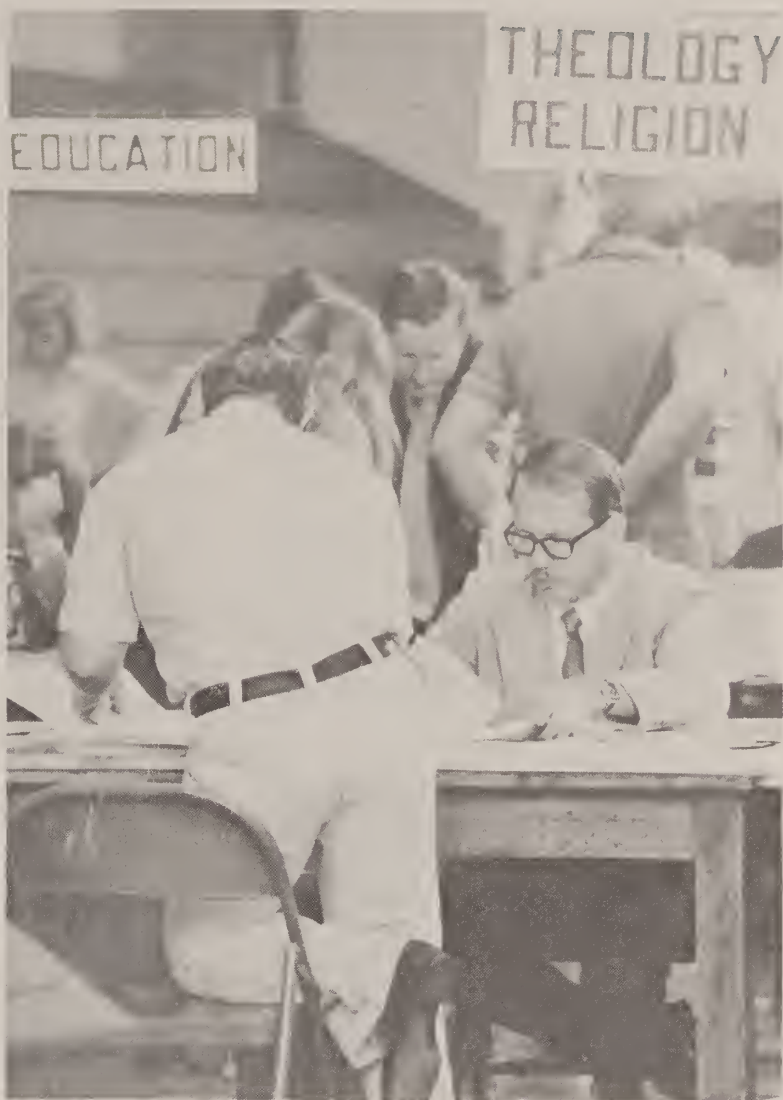

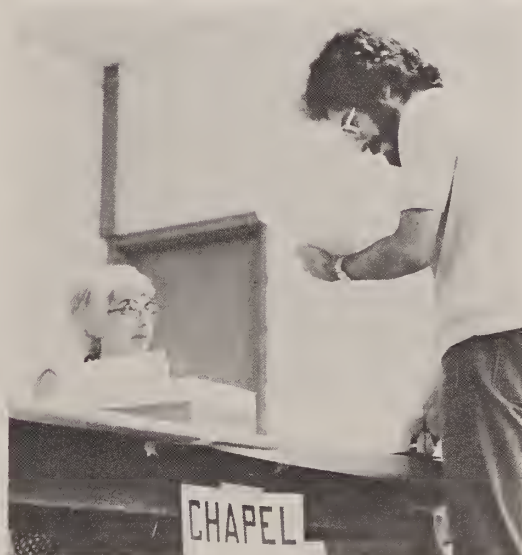

Gradually, the familiar faces begin to appear along with the new ones that will become familiar.

College is a new experience for freshmen. Being awakened by the welcoming committee of the Sophomore class at 5:00 a.m., having flour dumped all over your body, being made to sing "We're Marching to Moseley, beautiful, beautiful Moseley", wearing beanies, and having to do whatever Sophomores tell you to do are all part of being initiated into college life. These activities, at least in theory, provide an opportunity for becoming better acquainted with other members of the freshman class. Next year, these same freshmen will have their turn to carry on this tradition of initiation.

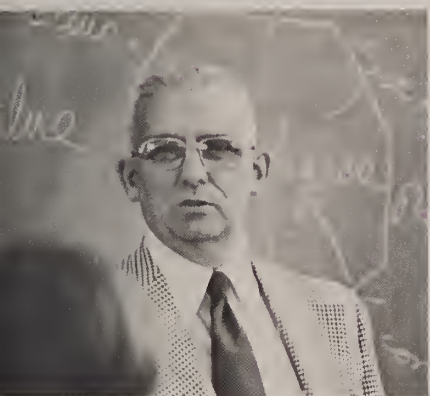

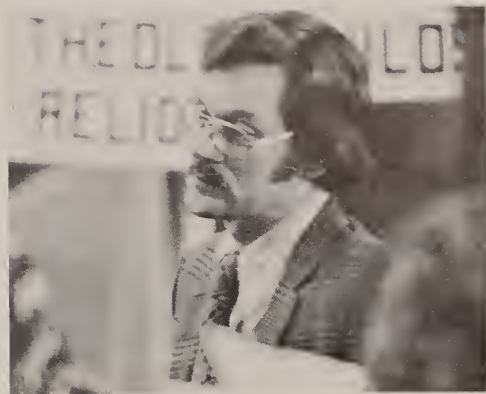

Registration is that rite of passage from carefree to overwhelmed, or from work to school work—whichever the case may be. It is everyone's goal to go through registration at least once without having any schedule conflicts and without spending two hours waiting for academic check.

The Alliance School of Theology and Missions is a new addition to the Nyack Scene this year. It brings to full development the program previously carried on at Jaffray School of Missions. The purpose of the graduate work of ASTM is to educate men and women for ministry in church and mission.

Now that we're here, we will meet with all the people around: fellow students, faculty, and community. Throughout the year, we will become acquainted with books we've never known before; figures of the past and present and their ideas will become a part of ourselves. We will meet for class, study, fun, and service. We will be different when it ends.

BURNING THE MIDNIGHT OIL...

THE COMPLETE
SPORTSMAN

"This is the day that the Lord hath made, let us rejoice and be glad in it." The sun is shining across the Hudson River, the sky is blue and the air is crisp. Opportunities to learn and grow are vast in the coming day. All this to be enjoyed—and on only three hours of sleep.

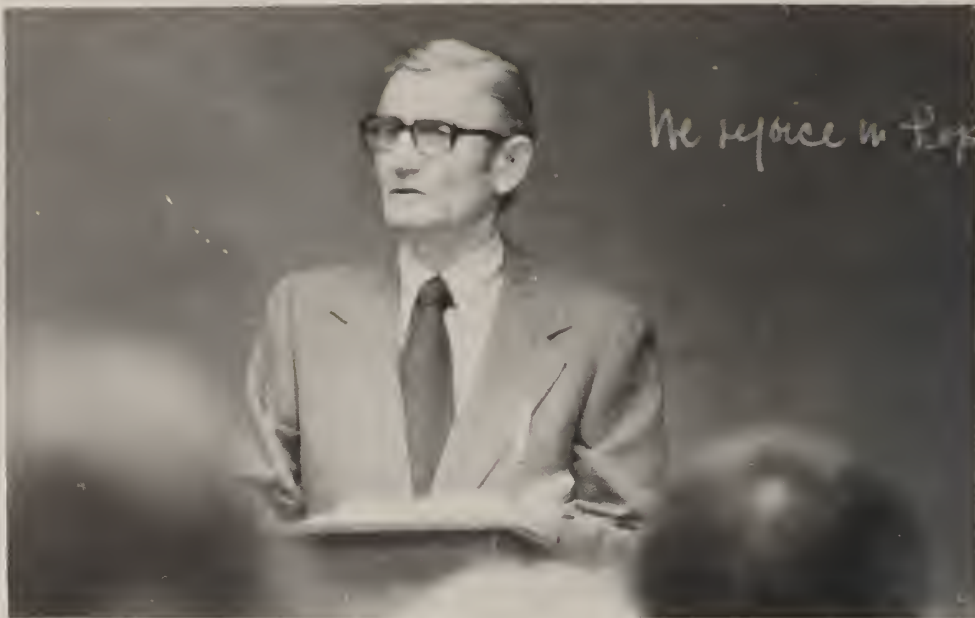

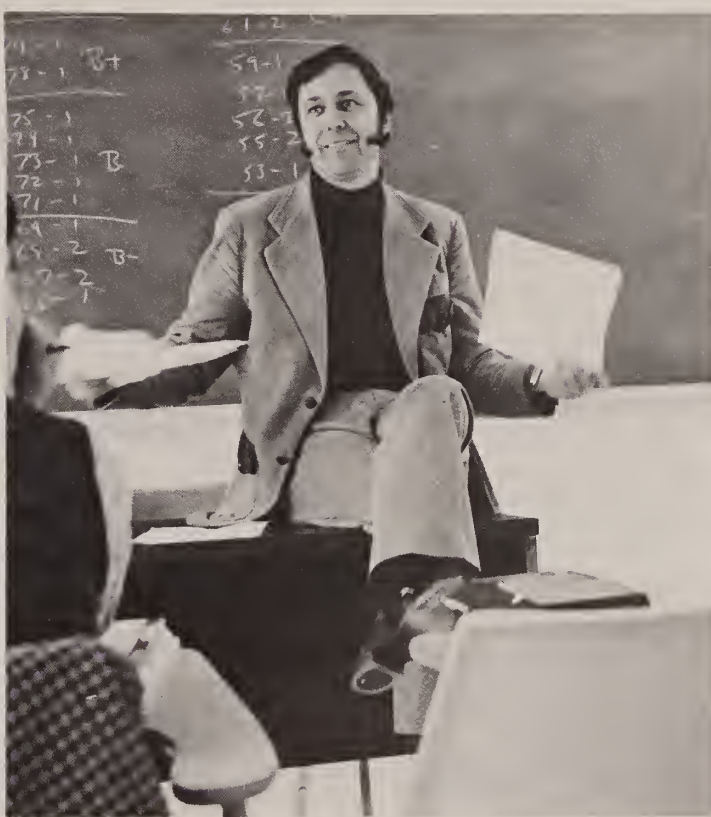

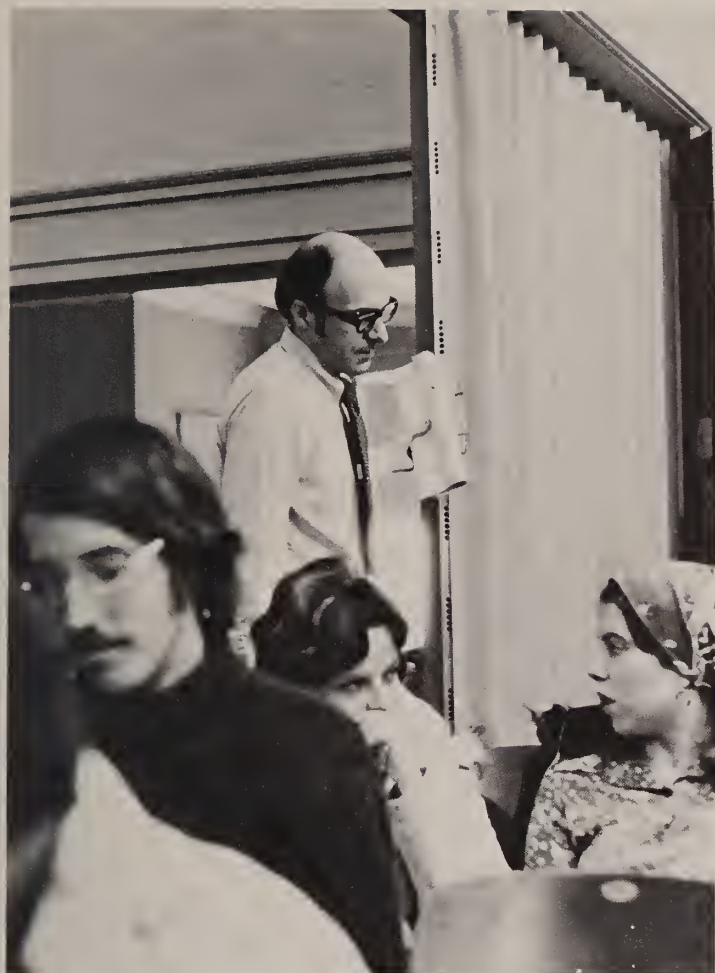

One meal = 60 lbs. spaghetti with 25 gal. of sauce, 140 lbs. of roast beef, or 700 hamburgers . . . 150 gal. of milk/week and lots of dedication. It isn't like Mom's, but as prices skyrocketed and there was still plenty, we couldn't help but wonder.

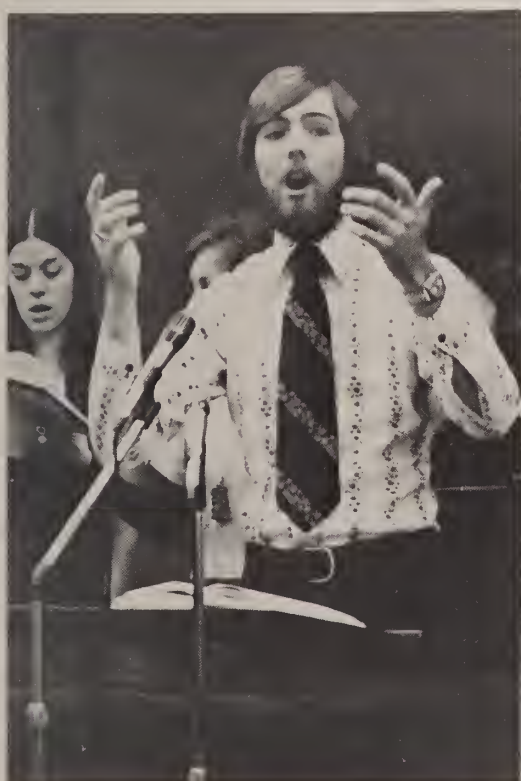

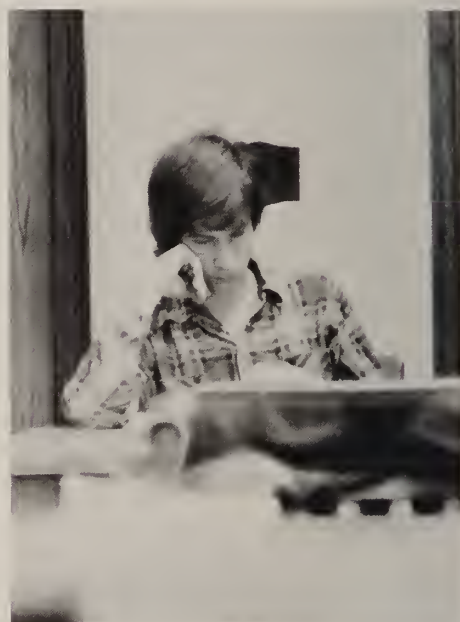

Classes ... in twenty-two major areas from the perspectives of fifty-three instructors; these are varied types of learning experiences. Figuring on averages, a student will be required to take forty-three of these experiences before graduating. Meeting an average of three times a week for fifteen weeks, this means approximately 1,935 classes per student if you didn't cut any.

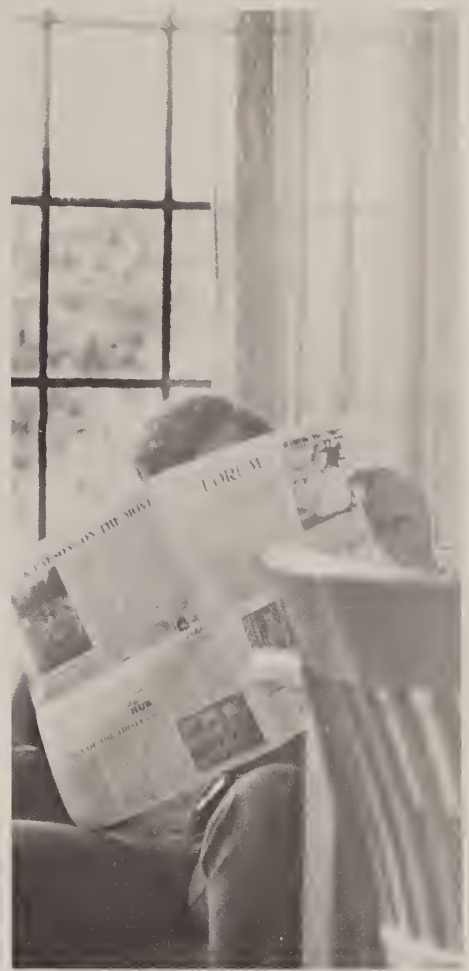

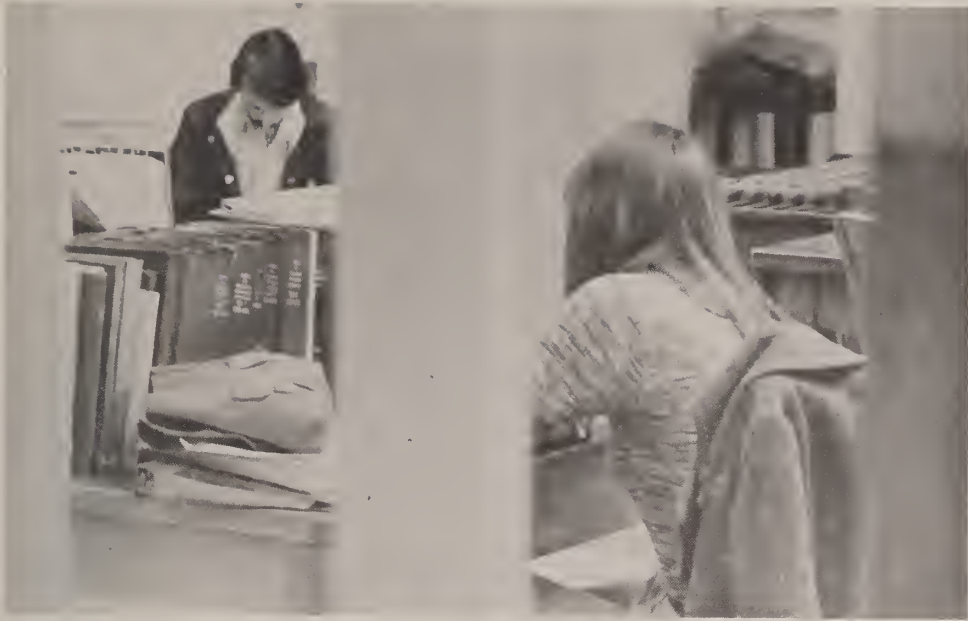

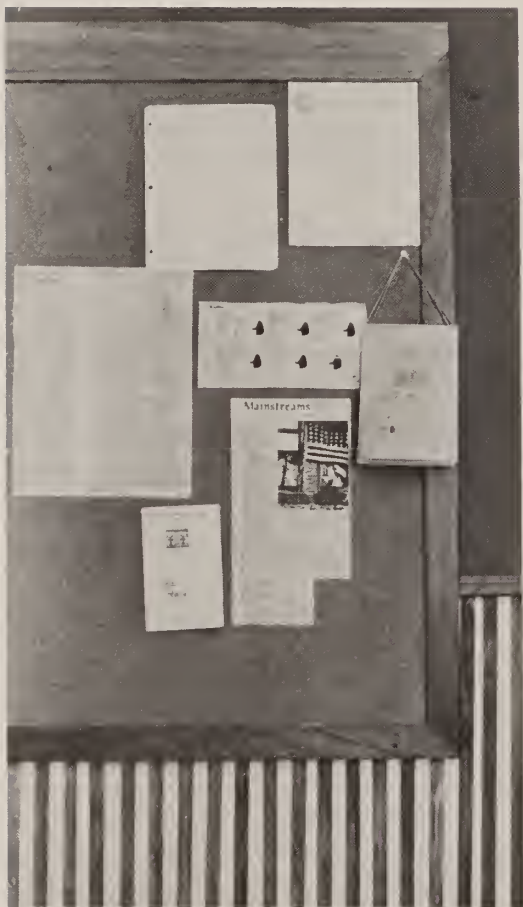

Chapel . . . the only time of each day when all of the student body—well almost all of them—are at one place at the same time, 10:00 a.m. each morning. Here, we see another side of Nyack's faculty and staff. This is when they come out from behind their desks, or come off the tops of their desks as the case may be, and give us some spiritual teaching. Special events include Thursday's Student Council assemblies with their many and varied announcements and Friday's Mish meetings followed by prayer bands.

The working of brains is captured by the florescent buzzing of the lights. At other times, in other places, a small concentrated light contains student and study.

The small size of the enrollment of Nyack College makes it possible for everyone to get acquainted with everyone else—or at least almost everyone else. As a result, there are many opportunities for fellowship with all kinds of people.

Lasting friendships are developed; understanding and respect for one another are also gained as a result.

PRESIDENT HAROLD W. BOON

for 35 years of dedicated service

During the week of September 30-October 4, Nyack College enjoyed a season of spiritual food and direction through the messages of Rev. Don Miller. Despite the daily rainfall, the campus experienced the warm sensation of God's love as Rev. Miller spoke to us, both in groups and individually, about the place of the Christian, the authority of Christ's name, and spiritual discipline. We realized that, in his words: "God has done far more for you than you've probably thought of recently."

Payment day, though not the final accounting, inspires dread in $\frac{2}{3}$ of the students. However, through a system of extensions, as much financial aid as possible, and the Lord's help, the semester goes on.

Fall Frolics, a program consisting of the school's talent: musical and comical, spiritual and secular, was co-hosted by Jeff Miller and John Gerberich. This year's entries consisted of everything from munchkins to country bumpkins, and a visit from Martians. There was also an imitation of the scene from "The Wizard of Oz" in which the Wicked Witch of the West melted.

MY THREE ANGELS

The Christmas season at Nyack College begins with a banquet in the cafeteria; we get to dress up and eat by candlelight. Then, there is a Carol and Candlelight concert in which the Ladies Glee Club, the Brass Choir, and the Orchestra provide a Christmas mood along with their Christmas music. This is also the time when the dormitories are open to all who want to see how the members of the opposite sex live—or try to live. This is the last chance to enjoy oneself before EXAMS!

ded-i-cate . . . 1. to set apart and consecrate to a deity, or a sacred purpose. 2. to give up wholly or earnestly, as to some person or end: set apart or appropriate. 3. to inscribe or address (a book, piece of music, etc.) to a patron, friend, etc., as in testimony of respect or affection.

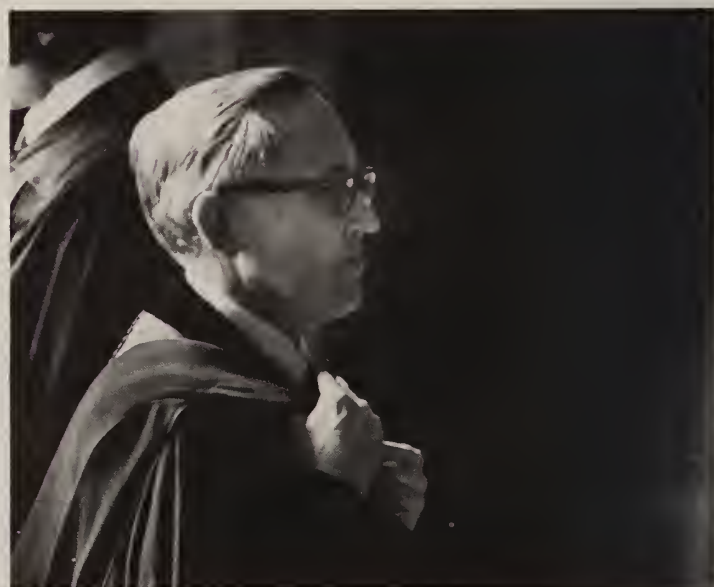

To forget a friend is sad. Not everyone has had a friend. The students, faculty and alumni of Nyack College will not forget our friend, pastor, and teacher of thirty-seven years as he prepares to leave us to serve our Lord in the Philippines.

As a small token of our thanks we dedicate the 1974-1975 Missionarian to one of God's most dedicated servants . . .

Dr. Donald McKaig

Mr.
Boon, M.A.
English
Religious Education

When Dr. Boon heads for sunny Florida this summer, he will leave behind a long heritage of service on the hillside. When Harold W. Boon came as an instructor of English and Religious Education in 1940, the Missionary Training Institute served a different world than does Nyack College. Dr. Boon has been responsible for many of the adjustments needed for this transition.

Some of these changes include the expansion of facilities and the improvement of academic standards. Since Dr. Boon became president of the college in 1959 four buildings have been added to the campus: Mosely North Wing, Married Students Apartments, the Campus Center, and the Gymnasium. Under the leadership of Dr. Boon, the college has become accredited by the Middle States Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. Dr. Boon has also actively participated in the plans for A.S.T.M.

The Missionarian staff and the student body of Nyack College would like to wish Dr. and Mrs. Boon much happiness and God's blessing in the years to come.

The Road Not Taken

Two roads diverged in a yellow wood,
And sorry I could not travel both
And be one traveler, long I stood
And looked down one as far as I could
To where it bent in the undergrowth;

Then took the other, as just as fair,
And having perhaps the better claim,
Because it was grassy and wanted wear;
Though as for that the passing there
Had worn them really about the same,

And both that morning equally lay
In leaves no step had trodden black.
Oh, I kept the first for another day!
Yet knowing how way leads on to way,
I doubted if I should ever come back.

I shall be telling this with a sigh
Somewhere ages and ages hence:
Two roads diverged in a wood, and I—I took the one less traveled by
And that has made all the difference.
